

2021 GARDEN CLASSES HOSTED BY KING COUNTY WATER DISTRICT NO. 90

Date & Time	Class	Speaker
Wednesday, May 19, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	Automatic Sprinkler Systems – How to Water Your Yard and Garden Efficiently	Mark Guthrie, Landscape Water Conservation Program Manager at the Saving Water Partnership
Wednesday, July 7, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	Simply Lovely: Great Plants for NW Gardens	Emily Bishton, Landscape Designer and Environmental Educator
Wednesday, July 21, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	Designing for the NW Garden	Greg Rabourn, Educator and Radio Personality
Wednesday, August 4, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	Knockout Gardens: Winning the War on Water Use with Great Plants and Techniques	Marianne Binetti, Author and NW Horticultural Expert
Thursday, August 12, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	The Down and Dirty: Soil Building Secrets for Greener Gardens	Ea Murphy, Soil Scientist and Author
Wednesday, September 8, 2021 5:00 - 6:30 pm	Perma-What? Designing Your Own Permaculture Paradise	Jessi Bloom, Best-Selling Author and Owner/Lead Designer of N.W. Bloom EcoLogical Landscapes

All of our classes are FREE and will be held at our District Office located at 15606 SE 128th Street in Renton, Washington. If in-person meetings will not be possible, we will switch to hosting classes via Zoom.

To register, please contact our Outreach Coordinator via email at daniellet@kcwd90.com or by phone at (425) 255-9600. We hope to see you at one of our classes!

